This Ukraine Support Maxicard Collection is a philatelic display of global solidarity.

Welcome to the first auction of Stamp Out War: Support Ukraine! – a unique and creative charity project that celebrates Ukraine and its people while raising funds for relief efforts. Our mission is to bring people from all over the world together in solidarity with Ukraine and demonstrate our support for this democratic nation through the beauty and collectability of Ukraine support maxicards. We believe that every card we created is not only a visual masterpiece but also a symbol of hope for a better future for the people of Ukraine.

This auction celebrates the achievements of those who participated in this project. We hope that this display will inspire and unite collectors from around the world, and continue to raise awareness about the terror of war and support for Ukraine. With the auction of these cards, we aim to make a real difference in Ukrainians' lives, one stamp at a time. Thank you for joining us on this journey and for your contribution to this worthy cause.

OVERVIEW

“ Together, we can make a difference –
one stamp at a time.

Starting 24 February 2022, Russia’s invasion of Ukraine resulted in a major escalation of the Russo-Ukrainian War, which began in 2014. In response to Europe’s largest refugee crisis since World War II, up until mid-August 2022, the official postal agencies of 11 countries have issued special stamps to manifest their support and/or to raise funds for Ukraine. These countries are, in order of stamp release: Latvia (10 March), Estonia (24 March), Poland (25 March), Austria (31 March), Croatia (12 April), Moldova (19 April), Lithuania (6 May), Luxembourg (11 May), Spain (29 May), France (23 June) and Canada (7 July). Each of these stamps incorporates into its design the blue and yellow colours of Ukraine’s flag more or less prominently.

In response to the ongoing conflict in Ukraine, we – a group of collectors and stamp enthusiasts from around the world – collaborated to create maxicards that are truly special and historically significant by combining postcards, stamps, and postmarks in a way that celebrates Ukraine and its people. We began our journey by designing the postcard that would serve as the vehicle onto which later philatelic elements would be added. Its image is based on a photograph taken by the organiser, Linda, which shows an orderly composition with equal parts shared by the cloudless sky and a canola field in Prince Edward Island, Canada. To invite people from countries which didn’t issue a special Ukraine support stamp listed previously to participate, we found a creative way of substituting it with a stamp of sunflower / yellow flower to pay tribute to Ukraine as an independent, democratic nation. Lastly, we asked participants from around the world to add their own touch by visiting their local post office to obtain a postmark on the 24th of August – Ukraine’s national day.

As our project grew and gained momentum on social media, we were overwhelmed by the outpouring of support and interest from people around the world. From Australia to Austria, from Canada to Croatia, from Japan to Spain, and beyond – people from over 20 countries have participated in our project, each adding their country’s stamp and postmark to our collection of maxicards. The result is a unique and visually stunning collection of postcards that embody the theme of global solidarity.

This collection is not only a testament to the power of philately to unite different individuals across borders and cultures, but also a practical demonstration of the impact that can be achieved through collaboration. All proceeds from the auction of these maxicards will be donated to Ukraine relief funds, making a real difference to those affected by the ongoing conflict. In times of division, it is heartening to see the power of philately to bring people together in support of a common cause.
